Present Tense

Directions: Find the mistakes with the underlined words and correct them. NOT EVERY SENTENCE HAS A MISTAKE. If the sentence is correct, write, “correct”.

1. Why you don’t listen to me?

________________________________________________________________.

2. How you spell “beautiful”?

________________________________________________________________.

3. Is very hot and humid today.

________________________________________________________________.

4. My family and I live in Miami.

________________________________________________________________.

5. The college is being in Fort Lauderdale.

________________________________________________________________.

6. She’s my favorite teacher.

________________________________________________________________.

7. I don’t have my textbook yet.

________________________________________________________________.

8. She come from Nicaragua.

________________________________________________________________.

9. Marta does go to the movies every Saturday.

________________________________________________________________.

10. How much your new car costs?

________________________________________________________________.

Professor Alex Garrido
Gulliver Academy School, 2003