A. Finish or start the following sentences with a meaningful clause.

1. Recently I saw a famous actor at a store ____________________________
   ____________________________________.

2. Another thing I want to explain is _________________________________
   ____________________________________.

3. Because the people we work with are well-traveled, _____________________
   ____________________________________.

4. ________________________________ is that paint gets all over you.

5. If you try this at home, ________________________________
   ____________________________________.

6. Whether the fabric selection is expensive or not _______________________
   ________________________.

7. What I enjoyed most about the trip to Europe __________________________
   ____________________________________.

8. That they are not coming to the celebration _____________________________
   ________________________.

9. I was introduced to a man ________________________________
   ________________________.

10. As soon as everything settles down, ________________________________
    ________________________.
B. What type of clauses are they? Look at the sentences above and determine if they are noun clauses, adjective clauses, or adverb clauses.

1. ____________________
2. ____________________
3. ____________________
4. ____________________
5. ____________________
6. ____________________
7. ____________________
8. ____________________
9. ____________________
10. ____________________