Clauses: The Trilogy

Worksheet #3

A. Finish or start the following sentences with a meaningful clause.

1. Recently I saw a famous actor at a store ______________________
     __________________________.

2. Another thing I want to explain is ______________________
     __________________________.

3. Because the people we work with are well-traveled, ______________________
     __________________________.

4. __________________________ is that paint gets all over you.

5. If you try this at home, ______________________
     __________________________.

6. Whether the fabric selection is expensive or not ______________________
     __________________________.

7. What I enjoyed most about the trip to Europe ______________________
     __________________________.

8. That they are not coming to the celebration ______________________
     __________________________.

9. I was introduced to a man ______________________
     __________________________.

10. As soon as everything settles down, ______________________
    __________________________.
B. What type of clauses are they? Look at the sentences above and determine if they are noun clauses, adjective clauses, or adverb clauses.

1. ____________________
2. ____________________
3. ____________________
4. ____________________
5. ____________________
6. ____________________
7. ____________________
8. ____________________
9. ____________________
10. ____________________

Myra M. Medina
Miami-Dade College