Worksheet 8. Reading: Interviews by a TV Reporter

Read the interviews about the candidates for governor and then answer the questions on the next page.

Interviews by a TV Reporter

Sam Jones, a newscaster, is doing interviews of people in the street. He is asking the people about the candidates for governor. He’s going to talk about these interviews on TV on the 7:00 P.M. news tonight.

Candidate John McDonald

Candidate Mary Rossi

Interview 1

Sam: Who are you going to vote for next Tuesday?
Pat: Me? I’ve voting for John McDonald.
Sam: Why are you voting for McDonald?
Pat: He’s terrific. He was our mayor last year and many years before that, and he’ll be a great governor next year, I’m sure.
Sam: Did he do a good job as mayor?
Pat: He certainly did! He improved the roads in our city, and he will improve the roads all over the state.

Interview 2

Sam: Who are you going to vote for next Tuesday?
Kim: Rossi, for sure. I’m voting for Mary Rossi.
Sam: How come?
Kim: Because she was a terrific mayor in Maywood. Last year she got rid of crime in that city. As governor next year, she will get rid of crime in the whole state.
Sam: So you think that she did a good job as the mayor of Maywood?
Kim: An excellent job. And she will be an excellent governor.
