1. MAGAZINE SEARCH

Materials: Magazines to share in groups
Dynamic: Small groups
Time: 15 minutes
Procedure:
1. On the board, write a list of prepositions of place that the students have studied. Divide the students into groups of three or four and give each group several magazines. You may want to ask students to bring in their own. If you are supplying them, be sure that they have full-page ads or other large pictures.

2. Give the groups a time limit and have them search through their magazines to find a picture that contains situations illustrating prepositions of place.

3. When the time is up, each group goes to the front of the class, holds up its picture, and explains (in sentences) the contents of the picture, using prepositions of place.

   Example: The dog is under the table.
   The table is next to the man.
   The table is in front of the window.

4. The group that found a picture allowing them to correctly use the most prepositions of place from the list on the board wins.

NOTE: With an intermediate group, choose a wider range of prepositions that they have already reviewed.

2. SCAVENGER HUNT

Materials: Worksheet 50, objects filled in Dynamic: Pairs
Time: 20 minutes
Procedure:
1. Before students come into the classroom, distribute various objects around the room, placing them in visible positions that students can describe using their prepositions of place. List the objects on the worksheet.

2. Divide the class into pairs and give each pair a copy of the worksheet.
3. The students look around the room for each object listed on the worksheet and write a complete sentence describing its location. The first group to finish brings their worksheet to you to be checked. If the answers are correct, that group wins.

3. PREPOSITIONAL CHAIN DRILL

Materials: None

Dynamic: Whole class

Time: 10 minutes

Procedure:
1. Review prepositions of place.
2. Take a small object, such as a pen, and do something with it, then describe your action. (Put the pen on the desk and say, “I put the pen on the desk.”)
3. Give the pen to a student and ask him/her, “What did I do with the pen?”
4. The student answers and then does something different with the object that involves a different preposition of place.
5. The student then passes the object to the next student and asks, “What did we do with the pen?” That student repeats what the teacher did and what the first student did with the object. The second student then does something different with the object before passing it to the third student.

Example:

Teacher: I put the pen on the desk. What did I do with the pen?

Alfredo: You put the pen on the desk.

(to the next student, Damian) I put the pen above my head. What did we do with the pen?

Damian: The teacher put the pen on the desk. Alfredo put the pen above his head. I put the pen under my book.

(to the next student) What did we do with the pen? etc.

6. This activity continues until no one can do something different with the pen that can be described using a preposition of place.

NOTE: You may want to write the prepositions that have been used on the board to help the students remember.

Variation: Give each student a card to use with a preposition of place on it.
4. ERROR ANALYSIS

Materials: Worksheet 51 or other similar picture

Dynamic: Pairs

Time: 20 minutes

Procedure:

1. Divide the class into pairs. Give each pair a copy of the worksheet or other similar picture.

   NOTE: If you are using your own picture, also give the pairs several sentences you have written about the picture, as on the worksheet. Some sentences should be accurate, and others incorrect.

2. The pairs read the sentences about the picture and decide if they are correct or incorrect in their preposition usage. If they are incorrect, they must correct them.

3. When a pair is finished, check their work. If this is a competition, the first pair to finish the worksheet correctly wins. If using this activity as a review activity, go over the answers together when everyone has finished.

   SUGGESTION: As a follow-up activity, have each pair write 10 True/False sentences with which to challenge another pair.

5. PREPOSITION BEE

Materials: Worksheet 52A or 52B for instructor’s use

Dynamic: Teams

Time: 10 minutes

Procedure:

1. Divide the class into two teams. Have them line up along opposite walls, or arrange their desks in two lines.

2. The first student from Team A steps to the front of the class. Read a sentence, omitting the preposition. The student must fill in the blank. Several answers will probably be possible; give the team a point for any appropriate answer.

3. Alternate students from the two teams until everyone has had a turn or you are out of time. The team with the most points wins.

   SUGGESTION: Instead of reading the sentences, use an overhead and reveal one sentence at a time. This avoids repetition and helps the students to focus on the sentence.

   NOTE: You may want to make your own sentences based on the prepositions your class has covered. This activity could also be done at a higher level with sentences using phrasal verbs.
1. CONCENTRATION

Materials: Board, instructor's grid
Dynamic: Groups
Time: 25 minutes
Procedure: 1. Draw a grid on the board with just the numbers. On a paper, your grid will have the answers written in.

NOTE: In the example below, the phrasal verbs have been taken from the list in Fundamentals of English Grammar. Several of the verbs in the chart below can take more than one particle, but the list is usually limited to one or two combinations. It is important to choose combinations you have studied and to limit entries so that three or even four matches are not possible. If you have studied more than one combination (such as ask out, ask over, and ask around) and you want to review them using this activity, you will need to use some particles more than once. That way, the students will be able to make matches such as ask out, drop out, and so on. This chart is intended only as a model to help you explain the game; your own chart will be geared to the lessons in your class.

On the board:

| | | | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1</td>
<td>2</td>
<td>3</td>
<td>4</td>
<td>5</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>20</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Instructor’s grid:

| | | | | |
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
<th></th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>1 ask</td>
<td>2 back</td>
<td>3 drop</td>
<td>4 up</td>
<td>5 through</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>6 around</td>
<td>7 out</td>
<td>8 off</td>
<td>9 down</td>
<td>10 fill</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11 in</td>
<td>12 get</td>
<td>13 write</td>
<td>14 start</td>
<td>15 throw</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16 over</td>
<td>17 away</td>
<td>18 put</td>
<td>19 fool</td>
<td>20 call</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. Divide the class into groups of about five. Tell them that this is a memory game and no writing is allowed. Explain that they are looking for matches and will get a point for each match. They can confer as a team, but you will accept an answer only from the student whose turn it is. They can call out two numbers together the first time since no one knows where any of the words are. In subsequent turns, they should wait for you to write the first answer before they call out their second number.
3. As the first student calls out numbers, write the words that correspond to these numbers in the blanks. Ask the class if it is a match. If not, erase the words. If so, leave them there and cross them out (see below).

On the board:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6</td>
<td>7</td>
<td>8</td>
<td>9</td>
<td>10</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11</td>
<td>12</td>
<td>13</td>
<td>14</td>
<td>15</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16</td>
<td>17</td>
<td>18</td>
<td>19</td>
<td>20 call</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Variation: Instead of matching the verb with an appropriate preposition, you can set up the grid to review meaning. Your instructor’s grid might then look like this model. Follow the same rules for the game above.

Instructor’s grid:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1 call back</th>
<th>2 give back</th>
<th>3 stop sleeping</th>
<th>4 stop a machine/light</th>
<th>5 get through with</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>6 return</td>
<td>7 invent</td>
<td>8 return a call</td>
<td>9 start a machine/light</td>
<td>10 throw out</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>11 make up</td>
<td>12 shut off</td>
<td>13 be careful</td>
<td>14 put off</td>
<td>15 discard</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>16 wake up</td>
<td>17 postpone</td>
<td>18 turn on</td>
<td>19 watch out for</td>
<td>20 finish</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2. TIC TAC TOE

Materials: Board, Worksheet 53 (optional)

Dynamic: Teams

Time: 10 minutes

Procedure:

1. Draw a tic tac toe grid on the board with the first word of the phrasal verbs written in. Divide the class into two groups.

2. A student from Team X comes to the board and writes in the corresponding particle for the verb he/she selects. If correct, he/she draws his/her mark in the square (an X). (You may choose to accept only combinations you have studied in class or that are listed in the students’ books, or you may decide to accept any correct combination. Whichever you decide to accept, make your decision clear to the students before playing the game.)

3. A student from Team O then comes to the board and does the same. If an answer is incorrect, the student cannot draw his/her mark and erases the answer. The next player on the other team may choose that same square or another square.
4. The first team with three marks in a row wins.

NOTE: You will probably want to explain game strategy such as blocking, but often the student’s choice is based on which verb he/she knows.

5. As a follow-up, divide the class into groups of three and use the worksheet. One student is X, one is O, and the other is in charge and can have his/her book open to the verb page to judge whether an answer is correct. After the first game, the students should rotate roles so that the judge is now one of the players. Continue until all students have had a chance to be the judge. As you will see, some of the verbs on the handout take several different prepositions. As long as the students make an acceptable phrasal verb, the answer is correct.

NOTE: The items on the worksheet come from the list in Fundamentals of English Grammar. If this worksheet is not appropriate to your class, modify it.

Variation: On the grid on the board (or on a modified worksheet), fill in the squares with both parts of phrasal verbs. When a student selects a certain square, he/she must use the phrasal verb in a complete sentence which demonstrates understanding of the meaning. If the sentence is correct, the student puts his/her team’s mark in that square.

Example:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>ask out</th>
<th>do over</th>
<th>fill up</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>get off</td>
<td>give up</td>
<td>try on</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>turn off</td>
<td>make up</td>
<td>hang up</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

A student from Team X chooses “give up.” The student then makes a sentence orally: I couldn’t understand the assignment, so I gave up. The sentence must reflect the student’s understanding of the meaning of the phrasal verb. A sentence such as I gave up or Don’t give up is not acceptable. If a sentence is accepted as being correct, the student writes an X over the square. A student from Team O then chooses a square and makes a meaningful sentence using that phrasal verb. Alternate turns until one team has three in a row or the game is a draw.

3. PREPOSITION BEE

See the directions for the Preposition Bee on page 162. Use Worksheet 54 or a similar list of your own sentences.
4. BEAT THE CLOCK

Materials: 3” x 5” cards (see sample)

Dynamic: Teams

Time: 30 minutes

Procedure:

1. Put a sentence using a phrasal verb on one side of as many index cards as you need. Review and discuss phrasal verbs. Have the students create sentences or dialogues and practice orally.

2. Divide the class into two teams, A and B. Arrange the teams so that Team A’s desks are directly across from (and touching) Team B’s desks. If using tables, have Team A sit on one side and Team B on the other side.

3. Show the students the front of a card. The first student (A or B) who answers with a phrasal verb that correctly replaces the verb on the card gets a point for his/her team. If that student can then use the phrasal verb in a sentence with the correct tense, his/her team gets an extra point.

Example:

Card: I raised my children in Ohio.

Student response: I brought my children up in Ohio.

Sample cards:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>FRONT</th>
<th>BACK</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I raised my children in Ohio.</td>
<td>bring up</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I met John by chance at the mall.</td>
<td>run into</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Tell Jill to return my call.</td>
<td>call back</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Please be sure to arrive for the test at exactly 8:00.</td>
<td>show up</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
5. “UP” VERBS

Materials: 3” x 5” cards
Dynamic: Pairs/Small groups
Time: 20 minutes
Procedure:
1. Write one verb on each card. Choose some verbs that can also be phrasal verbs with up.

   Examples:
   - ask (can’t be used with up)
   - check (can be used with up)
   - cross (can’t be used with up)
   - get (can be used with up)

2. Divide the class into pairs or groups of three or four. Give each group a stack of verb cards.

3. Tell the students to divide the cards into two piles: verbs with up/verbs without up.

4. When all the up verbs are found, have the students take turns explaining the meaning of each phrasal verb to the other students in the group.

Variation: Make three identical sets of vocabulary cards. Divide the class into three teams. Tell the students to find the up verbs. The team that finds the most up verbs wins. Each correct up verb is worth one point. For each incorrect up verb, subtract one point from the total score. Use the same procedure for any phrasal verb pattern (for example, out, away, through, etc.).

6. PHRASAL CHALLENGE

Materials: None
Dynamic: Pairs
Time: 30 minutes
Procedure:
1. Divide the class into pairs. Tell the pairs to write down eight phrasal verbs and their meanings that they think the rest of the class will not know.

2. After they are finished, join two pairs and have the first pair challenge the other pair. Each pair takes turns reading the phrasal verbs from their list and having their opponents state the meaning of each phrasal verb and use it in a sentence.

3. If the opponents answer correctly, they get a point. The pair with the most points wins.
4. For homework, have the students use the phrasal verbs that they missed in correct sentences.

7. STORY TIME

Materials: 3” x 5” cards, writing paper

Dynamic: Small groups

Time: 40 minutes

Procedure:

1. Divide the class into groups of three, and give each group five 3” x 5” cards.

2. Each group writes down a different phrasal verb on each of their index cards. You may want to let them use the lists in their books. Have them write the definition of each phrasal verb on the back.

3. Have the groups quiz each other as to meaning by showing only the front of the card to another group.

4. Next, each group makes a sentence orally for each phrasal verb. Rotate the cards again until each group has seen every card and can make a logical sentence. Monitor the groups during this phase.

5. When the students have a good grasp of the definitions, return their original phrasal verb cards to them. Each group now writes a paragraph using all of their phrasal verbs.

6. When the students have finished, rotate their papers clockwise and the 3” x 5” cards counterclockwise. (Each group will have another group’s story and a new set of cards.)

7. Each group reads the paragraph and adds a second paragraph, using their new group of phrasal-verb cards.

8. Have them repeat steps 6 and 7. Each group should now have a three-paragraph story.

9. Return the original story to each group. Tell the students to look it over and make any changes they think are necessary. Have one student from each group read the story to the class. Collect the stories for a final teacher correction.
8. CLASS SURVEY

Materials: 3” x 5” cards in four different colors
list of difficult phrasal verbs sheets of newsprint and markers (optional)

Dynamic: Groups

Time: 40 minutes

Procedure: 1. Choose four themes and for each theme make up a set of questions, using the phrasal verbs that you want to practice. (You may want to have the students compile a list.)

Examples:

Family:
Do you take after your father or your mother?
Did you grow up in a large family or a small family?
Do you get along well with your brothers and sisters?
Are you named after anyone in your family?

School:
Do you go over your notes after class?
Do you try to get out of doing your homework?
Do you ever have trouble keeping up with the assignments?
What is an important grammar point that you have to look out for?

2. Write one set of questions on one yellow card, one set of questions on one green card, etc.

3. Divide the class into groups. (Four groups of four works well, but five groups of five or three groups of three also works. Put extra students into existing groups to work as pairs.)

4. Tell the students that they are going to do some investigation into the society of the classroom by doing a survey. Give each group a set of same-color cards and a theme: The Yellow Group—Family; The Green Group—Friends, etc. Give the question card to the group leader and a blank card to each of the other members.

5. The group members copy the questions from the group leader’s card on their own cards so that each has a card with the same questions. They may add questions of their own if they wish or if there is extra time. Any additional questions must include a phrasal verb.

6. When each member has an identical set of questions, the teams stand up and form new groups with one member of each color. (If there are extras of one or two colors, they can work as partners within the group.)
7. In their new groups, the students take turns interviewing each group member. The yellows ask their questions first and record the data, then greens, then blues, etc. Everyone asks everyone else in the group his/her questions.

8. The students reform their original same-color groups, summarize their findings, and present them to the entire class. If time permits, have the groups prepare a visual on newsprint in the form of a pie chart, a graph, a list of statistics, or another type of visual. The posters can be part of the presentation and later be put up around the board.

NOTE: To save time, write out the duplicate cards yourself on colored index cards or copy one set of questions on different-colored paper. This will take the place of step 5. Collect the cards and reuse them in later classes.

SUGGESTION: This activity works well with preposition combinations instead of phrasal verbs.

Examples:

Best Friends:
What do you look for in a best friend?
Is your best friend patient with you?
Do you ever hide anything from your best friend?
Do you ever argue with your best friend?

Work:
Are you content with your job?
Do you look forward to going to work?
Do you forget about your job when you leave at the end of the day?
Does your boss ever take advantage of you by having you do extra work?
With a partner, find the objects on the list. They are all located somewhere in the classroom. Then write a complete sentence that includes a prepositional phrase to describe each object’s location.

Objects:

1.
2.
3.
4.
5.
6.
7.
8.
9.
10.

Locations:
